

Findlays Chartered Accountants appoints new Chief Operating Officer

Findlays Chartered Accountants, based in Dundee and Arbroath, have appointed Sarah Reddie as its new Chief Operating Officer.

Sarah, a qualified Management Accountant, has more than 25 years' experience spanning finance and operations across multiple sectors. Her most recent role was Managing Director at PHL Synaptik, a healthcare consultancy.

In the new role, she will oversee the daily operations of the firm ensuring efficiency and effectiveness, as well as developing business strategies to enable growth.

Commenting on her new role, Sarah said, "I am thrilled to join Findlays as Chief Operating Officer. I look forward to working closely with the Partners and staff to strengthen operations, deliver outstanding service to our clients and foster a workplace that inspires excellence".

Partner Lesley Campbell said "We are delighted to welcome Sarah into our team here at Findlays. Sarah brings with her many years of financial expertise as well as a wealth of cross sector senior experience in developing high performing teams. There is no doubt that Sarah's energy, enthusiasm and experience in leadership roles across various sectors make her ideally placed to drive operational excellence as well as ensuring the highest standards of service delivery to our clients.

As Chief Operating Officer, Sarah succeeds the current Practice Manager, Louise Cameron, who is retiring.

Lesley added "I want to thank Louise for her outstanding service to Findlays for over 25 years. She has been a loyal, hardworking and dedicated member of our team and we wish her a long and happy retirement".

Findlays Chartered Accountants are a well established and highly respected firm based in Dundee and Arbroath. Established since 1932, we offer accountancy and audit, taxation and business advisory and support services to both businesses and individuals.
